

IMAGINE WHEN...

Dream It. Share It. Be It.

What is the scope of your imagination? What are you dreaming about for your own life, your family, your community, the world? Have you ever had a GREAT idea but didn't know how to share it? Creating an Imagine When... statement is one way to start making dreams real.

We Imagination Installation folk love creating Imagine When... statements. In fact, it's how we start each meeting. We invite you to print out the following page and create your own! Here's a few suggestions to get you started:

- 1) Let your dreams fly free. Don't self-censor. Imagine When... statements can be wildly creative, unpredictable, or impractical. Your biggest dreams may not make any sense, and that's OK! Martin Luther King had a big dream. So did Ghandi, Rosa Parks, and Mother Teresa. Big dreams change the world. So dream BIG.
- 2) Use positive phrasing. For example, instead of writing, "Imagine When no one goes hungry.", write, "Imagine When everyone has enough to eat." Write what you want, not what you don't want.
- 3) Share your dream with others. Post your Imagine When... statement in the community, or on social media outlets such as Facebook or Twitter. Even better, link your post back to our Facebook and Twitter accounts, or to our website. The more we share, the greater the impact of our collective dreaming!
